STAT

General Smith has asked me to acknowledge your letter dated 27 October 1952 concerning your separation from the Central Intelligence Agency.

Your letter of 8 October 1952 addressed to the Director was referred by General Smith to the Inspector General whose office, in a letter dated 15 October 1952, answered yours of 8 October. As it appears that you did not receive the reply from the Inspector General's office, there is enclosed a copy of that letter.

You will appreciate that the special nature of the Agency's national responsibilities oblige it to set employment requirements which are considerably stiffer than those of most other Government departments and agencies. A large percentage of applicants for employment by the Agency and those, like yourself, who are given temporary employment pending completion of the time-consuming processing to which all applicants are subject, are not accepted. As pointed out in the enclosed letter, this is no reflection on you nor does it prejudice you in seeking employment with another Government agency or with private business.

Very truly yours,
